Featured News of the Month:

-The Monetary Authority and the Palestinian Securities Exchange Agrees on Actions to Support Liquidity in the Stock Market

On 13/08/2007 the Monetary Authority announced that the Palestinian Securities Exchange formally consented to allowing banks operating in Palestinian territories to lending for equity trading purposes. This is according to certain regulations that will be discussed between the two sides, in addition to the Capital Market. The PSE "We agree in principle and we are now in the process of developing regulations and instructions to banks to open the way for lending for the purpose of buying shares in accordance with the controls we agree upon with the market." The markets management made a request last March to the Monetary Authority in order to issue instructions to banks to allow them to lend shares to traders. The markets management attached a request study on the restrictions of this process, which included a breakdown of the positions of companies at the financial performance during the year 2006. It made two lists, one with the companies having excellent shares which was 6 companies in all and the other list having names of companies and the other list containing companies that are good standing which are also 6. This in order to be reviewed annually in this classification

-97% of the PSE listed companies disclosed their audited financial statements before the deadline

The head of the Governing Council, the Executive Chairman of the PSE Hassan

Abulibdeh stated that 34 companies out of 35 listed companies disclosed their financial statements within the prescribed time limit, adding that "An important sign as for disclosure." Abulibdeh praised the companies commitment in disclosing within the time available, adding that the market decided to take a number of measures derived from the law and the market rules and instructions of the capital market towards the Arab Investors Co.(ARAB) which was the only company that did not disclose, this in order to protect shareholders rights.
