The PSE's performance in October differed from September where AL-Quds Index witnessed a retreat by (7.28%) closing at (509.90) points. The decline in trading value was a rate of (11.14%) compared to September, trading (29.03) million shares which valued ($86.04) million following (15,267) contracts. The most important event this month was the listed companies' disclosures was the disclosure of listed companies on their financial statements for the 3rd quarter of the year 2007. Thirty five companies disclosed their financial data within the legal period given. Dr.Hassan Abulibdeh, President of the Governing Council and Executive Chairman of the PSE, said, "The disclosure of all companies within the available period reflects the commencement of a new era of commitment to automatic disclosure requirements which is considered a fundamental condition for laying foundations to protect shareholders and investors rights and the development of the Palestinian investment environment.

The results of the companies' disclosures data for this 3rd quarter period indicated that 26 out of 35 companies achieved profits, which leaves the remaining 9 suffering losses. According to the results of the companies, the banking sector was the best as the 6 banks in the sector all achieved profits. While the 3 companies in the insurance sector achieved profits and one suffered a net loss. Whereas, two out of eight companies in the investment sector and another two out of seven companies in the service sector suffered losses. Note that 6 companies from the industry sector achieved annual profits out of the 10 companies listed.

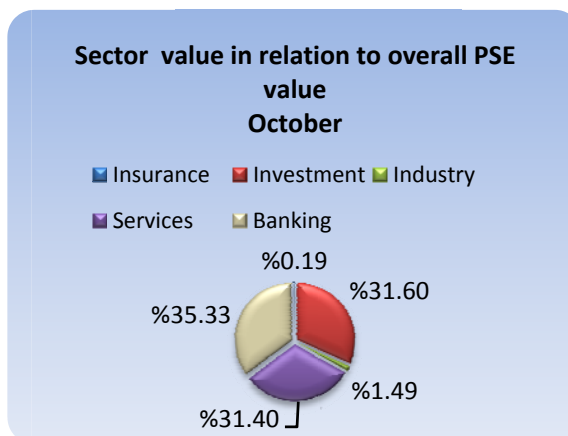

Back to the trading value of the companies' shares in the 5 sectors. In first place comes the banking sector where it formed (35.33%) of the PSE total trading value. The BOP share closed at ($2.87) after trading (8.29) million shares valued at ($26.07) million, which includes, off floor trades totaling (4.18) million shares valued at ($12.98) million. These deals are usually either inheritance movements or family concessions. As for the AIB share, it closed at (1.98) with a trading volume amounting to ($3.20) million valued at (1.60) million shares. Next in order comes the AMB share, closing at ($0.94), with a trading value of ($0.71) million and a traded volume of (0.73) million shares.

The Investment sector came in second place in terms of the overall market value of trades, constituting (31.60%). As usual PADICO shares came in first place in its sector, forming (28.73%) of the total value of trades for the PSE closing at ($2.27) while trading (10.72) million shares valued at ($24.71) million.
