AI -Quds index earned an increase of (%0.98) closing at (527.26) points at the end of November of 2007 during (17) trading sessions. This slightly increase was due to an increase of indexes of Industry, services and insurance sectors, on the other hand similar decrease was parallel to the increase in both banking and investment sectors. This month, aggregated trading value reached ($53.68) million after trading (16.20) million shares through (7,762) contracts.

Services sector's index was ranked first with an increase of (%4.71), where it's trading value of ($29.14) million constituted more than (%54) of PSE gross value. PALTEL was the most active share from trading value side, it also formed approximately (%53) from overall trading value that had been concentrated on institutional transactions , this pushed PALTEL to close at the rate of (JD 4.93) increasing by (%5.12) after trading (4.21) million shares that valued ($28.36) million. AHC followed with a trading value of ($0.35) million after trading (0.45) million shares and increased by (%6.38) to be the biggest winner in services sector. PEC experienced a slightly decrease of (%0.98) after trading (0.12) million shares that valued ($0.12) and ended to close at the rate of ($1.01).

Industry sector's index was ranked as second with an increase of (%3.46) in spite of being the last in trading value from aggregate PSE value. The biggest gainer by an increase of (%10.81) was NCI with a noticeable trading volume of (0.18) million shares that valued ($0.12) million and closed at the rate of (JD 0.41). As for BPC gained (%9.53) and closed at (JD 5.40) after trading (0.06) million shares and valued ($0.50) million. AZIZA was the biggest loser in the sector with a decrease of (%15.65) through weak volume of (0.004) million shares.

By (%2.47) increase, Insurance sector was ranked as third where ranked as fourth from gross value side. AIG constituted more than (%85) from sector's overall trading value, where it stabled at ($1.48). As for NIC, it closed at the rate (JD 5.09) gaining (%6.04) after trading (0.01) million shares valued ($0.12) million. Investment sector came to be fourth losing by (%2.77). PADICO declined by (%3.46) to end closing at ($2.23) after trading (6.68) million shares that valued ($15.10) million. As for IID, it closed at (JD 0.53) after a noticeable trading volume of (0.28) million shares that formed a value of ($0.22) million.

The biggest loser was banking sector, its index ended to decline by (%3.10) affected by the decrease of BOP that's by its turn declined by (%6.34) to close at the rate ($3.10) after trading (1.46) million shares valuing ($4.57) million. As for AIB, it closed at ($1.99) after trading (0.36) million shares that valued ($0.50) million, where AMB declined by (%2.15) to close at ($0.91).

The International donors' Conference that had been held in PARIS had provided more than what the promising government had been demanding in order to support the development and reformation plan that had been presented by Dr. Salam Fayyd. The donors pledged 7.4 billion to support PNA's institutions and Palestinian understructure projects. This results that came after Annapolis intensify on the ability of building a strong economic, financial and political situation and to underpin the political process launched in Annapolis last November.
