Palestine Securities Exchange had adjusted Al-Quds index' sample, where both AMB and UCI had been inserted, while NIC and PRICO had been omitted from the index. This process depended on many elements; the most important were number of trading sessions and market capitalization of the companies in addition to specific determinates based on trading statistics.

Al -Quds index earned an increase of (%13.05) closing at (596.09) points at the end of January 2008 during (19) trading session. This noticeable increase was due to an increase of the indexes of investment, services and insurance sectors. This month, aggregated trading value reached ($140.03) million after trading (37.35) million shares through (19,065) contracts.

Services sector's index was the biggest gainer, which earned (%19.04) through a gross trading value of ($65.04) million where PALTEL constituted approximately (%99) from this value, which in its turn closed at the level of (6.00) JD registering (%21.70) increase. PALTEL had reached the level of (6.68) JD during this month's transactions through an active trading of (7.70) million shares. As for WASSEL it increased slightly by (%1.06) to close at (0.95) JD after trading (0.18) million shares that valued ($0.24) million. In this sector, AHC was the biggest loser by (%13.00), ending its transactions at the level of (0.87) JD after a trading value of ($0.04) through (0.03) million shares.

Investment sector' index increased by (%11.13) through trading volume of (21.45) million shares that valued ($53.39) million. PADICO is considered the biggest gainer in the sector with a rising percentage of (%14.35) where (19.29) million shares were traded and valued ($50.51) million through some institutional transactions to end its trading at the level of ($2.55). As for PRICO it soared by (%5.26) closing at ($1.20) after trading (0.87) million shares that valued ($1.43) million, where ARAB earned a noticeable rise of (%5.48) to end its approximately ($6000) trading value at the level of (0.77) JD. UCI decreased by (%12.09) through trading (0.37) million shares with a gross value of ($0.30) million.

As for insurance sector, its index advanced by (%4.35) through trading (0.07) million shares that amounted ($0.18) million. NIC gained (%17.88) to end closing at the level of (6.00) JD within trading (0.01) million shares that valued ($0.08) million. Where AIG retreated by (%6.08) ending its transactions at the level of ($1.39) after trading (0.06) million shares that valued ($0.08) million.

Industry sector's index descended by (%1.97) after a trading value of ($3.20) million through trading (0.83) million shares. JPH constituted approximately (%55) from the sector's gross value increasing by (%3.79) to end closing at the level of (5.20) JD after trading (0.23) million shares. As for BPC it declined by (%4.81) closing at (5.14) JD through trading (0.06) million shares with a value of ($0.49), while GMC also declined by (%3.37) after trading (0.13) million shares that valued ($0.16) million to end closing at (0.86) JD.

Banking sector's index was the biggest loser by (%3.32) affected by the retreat of PIBC which in turn decreased by (%11.76). Trading value of this sector was ($18.20) million through (6.75) million shares, where BOP constituted approximately (%85) form it, to end the month closing at the level of ($3.19) increasing by (%2.90) after trading (5.03) million shares. As for AIB it declined by (%6.03) to close at the level of ($1.87).
