Company Overview

The Palestinian Company for Distribution and Logistics Services (Wassel) is a Palestine-based public shareholding company engaged in the provision of logistic and courier services. The Company provides shipping and clearance, packing, domestic forwarding and warehousing services. In addition, it provides other services through its three main subsidiaries and joint ventures, namely Palestinian Company for Rent & Lease; Pallease, which provides vehicles, machines and buildings leasing and rental services; Palexpo, which provides event management and exhibition organization services; PalSafe, which provides security services, and Paltech Investment, which operates as the local distributer for Xerox office machineries and equipments.

At the end of year 2010, Massar International Group purchased the stakes of Palestine Telecommunications, Palestine Development & Investment and Palestine Industrial Estate Development in Wassel that accounted for 24% of its capital, this came among these companies' strategy to restructure their investments that were announced in 2010 and Massar's strategy for development and expansion that would strengthen Wassel's financial position.
